MILLION-DOLLAR WALNUT CROP IN PATH OF FLAMES

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 30.—A million-dollar walnut crop in Goleta Valley is threatened by the San Marcos forest fire. The Pacific States long-distance telephone line between Los Angeles and San Francisco, which crosses the mountains in Refugio Pass, is imperiled, a score of lodges in the mountains are in danger and thousands of acres of fine grazing land may be swept before the big fire, which started Sunday night, is brought under control.

All day more than 100 fire fighters battled along the summit of the mountains to prevent the fire from creeping across the hill-tops and getting into the brush-covered southern slopes. If the fire reaches the ocean side of the range, it is declared, the heat generated in Goleta Valley may cause heavy damage to the walnut crop now rapidly maturing.

During the forenoon and early afternoon there was little wind and men were strung around the fire in an effort to check the flames as they slowly spread, but before the full force of the wind, blowing strong from the Santa Ynez Valley country, sprang up and almost like magic the flames leaped into a roaring conflagration.

FIRE FIGHTER BURNED.

Pete Stephens, one of the fire fighters, was caught in the center of the flames, and while he could escape with his arms and legs, he was badly burned. Other fire fighters had close calls but they escaped unhurt. Finally, however, the flames were checked.

While large forces were thus battling the fire, Supervisor T. W. Smith was directing another crew in cutting a wide fire-break through the brush to him in the morning. The fire, which started Sunday afternoon in the brush-covered hills, was held back by the fire fighters. With ten hours of hard work by brush cutters and teams of mules, the fire was held back from reaching the summit.

If the firebreak checks the flames, Cold Springs resort, the C. K. G. Billings and George O. Knapp lodges will be saved, as well as many smaller mountain lodges in that section. The Knapp, Billings and Black

Greeks Abandon Flank Movement Against Turkish

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 30.—Greek troops in Asia Minor have abandoned their flank movement in the Hat Desert against the Turkish Nationalist positions along the Sakaria River.

The Greeks are suffering terribly from lack of water and also are being punished by the Turkish Second Corps operating in the center of the Turkish lines.

The Greek desert division has been thrown into action along the Sakaria, south of the Angora Railway, where the two armies are facing each other on a line running east and west.

The Turkish army now numbers about 100,000.

"Even the nightgowns are going to be longer and have sleeves on them," a New York lingerie manufacturer declared today.

"Because the lingerie style has been for ribbons and shoulder bands and no sleeves, but women discovered the sleeves were more comfortable for fall and winter wear. It's not a fad, but really a new style—created because of the demand."

The majority of Philippine lingerie shows how it is sleeved. Among the most interesting those with V-front neck line cut low and a higher V-shape at the back.

REPARATIONS Obligations Anticipated.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Germany, through its fiscal agents in this country, has anticipated further reparations obligations to the Allies due tomorrow.

According to well-informed banking interests representing the German government, the reparations obligations are variously estimated at $100,000,000 to $150,000,000. These have been deposited with the agents of the British, French and Belgian governments here. Purchases of dollar exchange through Scandinavian countries to effect the transfer of the reparations were concluded several weeks ago and was stated.

SMOOT HAS NEW TAX PLAN.
Utah Senator Would Use Only Six Sources to Produce Federal Revenue.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—A new basis of taxation to take the place of the House revenue measure and practically all present tax laws was proposed today by Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, who announced he was preparing a bill embodying the plan, which he estimated would yield $2,000,000,000 this year. He added that he would take the question up with the Senate Finance Committee when it begins consideration of revenue questions Thursday.

The use of only six sources of taxation, including a tax on manufacturers' sales, instead of the more than thirty-five now on the statute books, was advocated by the Senator. The six wells from which the Utah Senator proposed to pump revenue and the amounts he estimated each would yield annually follow:

SOURCES OF REVENUE.

Income taxes (maximum rate of 35 per cent.) $1,000,000,000.
Ten per cent tax on net corporate profits, $445,000,000.
Tobacco taxes (present rates), $255,000,000.
Estate taxes, $150,000,000.
Import taxes (tariff), $400,000,000.
While the six sources would produce only $2,255,000,000, Smoot estimated that the other $185,000,000 would be obtained from collection of unpaid taxes, receipts from

MOTHER ADMITS BURNING BABES, SAY OFFICIALS.

MEDFORD (W. A.), Aug. 30.—Mrs. Tom Koehnly, wife of a farmer living in the town of Roosevelt, in Taylor county, has confessed to putting her three children—a boy and two girls, 8, 12 and 13 years, respectively—to bed in a hay barn and setting fire to it, according to information given out today by Dist. Atty. Andrew Taylor of Taylor county. The children were burned to death.

The mother said that she had intended throwing herself into the fire, but had lost her courage, according to the District Attorney. A quarrel with her husband is alleged to have been the cause of her act. She is being held at the County Jail here.

PLEADS FOR COMMON LAW.

Elihu Root Addresses the American Bar Association Convention at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.—A day of sectional meeting devoted largely to reports of committees and discussion occupied delegates and visitors who came today for the forty-fourth annual convention of the American Bar Association. Prominent barristers were present for the business meetings, auxiliary to the general convention, which begins tomorrow.

Elihu Root, former Secretary of State, in two brief addresses, urged the bar to play an important role in creating public opinion and in educating young lawyers in the fundamentals of the law.

"Modification of the principles of law is going on at greater speed and in larger scope than ever before," he told the session of the legal education section, of which he is chairman. "Changes in the administration of law have forced themselves even to the attention of the public. The application of law is so widely different from that of fifty years ago that some guiding line must be found."

"We must seek for the principles of common law, which is being slowly modified by thousands of statutes and decisions of courts. It is not a matter of law, but of education, requiring the background of the law which explains the true method and scope of law."

Miss Annette Adams of San Francisco, speaking before the criminal law section, urged in swift prosecution of those charged with crime.

The effect of the example to the public and of reform for the criminal is lost if there is long delay between arrest and conviction and incarceration," she declared. "Innocent men, too, should have an early opportunity to establish their innocence."

Forged finger prints were explained by Milton Carlson, a finger print expert of Los Angeles, who said that the first thing to prove, where finger prints were involved in crime cases, was whether the print was made by a human hand.

BRITISH OPPOSE STEEL TARIFF.

Delegation Appears Before Senate Committee.

Declare They Can't Pay Debt if U.S. Bar Goods.

Protest Against Bostonians Duty on Cream.

(REUTERS DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Increased duties on high-speed steel in the Fordney tariff bill were objected to by a delegation from the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce of Sheffield, Eng., today before the Senate Finance Committee.

Arthur Balfour, spokesman for the delegation, urged the American Congress to keep duties as low as possible in order to facilitate the payment of the debt owed the United States by Great Britain. It was asserted that the proposed duties on high-speed steel amount to four or five times the present duties and will not only restrict imports from the Sheffield district but will actually drive a few companies manufacturing cutlery and similar products out of business.

AMERICA GETS OUTPAT.

Eighteen per cent of all the manufacture of the Sheffield Steel district comes to the United States, Balfour said. Some of the factories send practically their entire product to this country.

Balfour objected to combination duties which are proposed in the Fordney bill both as a means of developing the high-speed steel industry in this country and of protecting the tungsten industry. The bill imposed a duty of 10 per cent on high-speed steel, which is designated as steel valued at more than 40 cents a pound, and also provides a duty of 73 cents a pound on the tungsten content of the steel.

Balfour asked that the 30 per cent duty be reduced to 10 per cent and the 73 cents duty to 15 cents. He said the duty on tungsten should be 15 per cent on the value of the tungsten content. On a foreign valuation basis the 15 per cent duty suggested by Balfour on the American valuation basis would be about the equivalent of the 15 per cent foreign valuation of the present law.

AMERICAN VALUATION.

Balfour objected to the adoption of the American valuation plan, declaring that the change in basis would make considerable difficulty for the British steel manufacturers in quoting local prices. Balfour described industrial conditions in England, which, he said, are probably worse than in the United States. He indicated that there are 1,500,000 workers in England wholly idle and between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 working half time.

CORNELL PARKER AND THEODORE F. QUINN OF BOSTON PROTESTED AGAINST THE DUTIES ON CREAM AND BUTTER.

Spoke for importers of Canadian cream. The Fordney bill provides a duty of 1 cent on cream with less than 50 per cent butter fat and 10 cents with more than 50 per cent butter fat. They were willing to allow these rates to stand provided the percentage of butter fat on which the 1 cent rate applies is increased to 40 per cent. They asked also that the proposed duty on butter be reduced from 4 to 3 cents per pound.

BAKERS AGAIN.

John M. Hartley of Chicago, representing the Retail Bakers' Association of America, protested against the proposed duties on eggs, almonds, filberts and coconuts. In connection with the duty on almonds he indicated that the bakers cannot use California almonds and are obliged to use the imported variety.

E. H. Hickok of the National Association of the Baking Industry, declared that the meat of the case would be the only one to benefit from the duty on eggs. Mr. Hickok said that the packers control the egg market.

CUBA FEARS EFFECT OF FORDNEY TARIFF.

MINISTER PRESENTS PROTEST FOR SUGAR, TOBACCO AND OTHER INTERESTS.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Tariffs proposed in the Fordney bill "threaten the economic stability of the Cuban government," Minister De Cespedes of Cuba, declared today in a memorandum presented Secretary Hughes in behalf of the Cuban commercial mission representing growers of tobacco, sugar and other products.

The economic and industrial future of Cuba, the commercial relations between the two countries and American investments in Cuba will be seriously impaired by the proposed increased duty on sugar alone, the memorandum said, while the Fordney bill imposed on leaf tobacco was declared to be "destructive to all concerned, including the American farmer."

Specific objection also was filed to the proposed rates on imports of pineapples and honey, of which Cuba is said to supply practically all purchased by the United States.

Accompanying tables show exports from the United States in Cuba in 1914, aggregating $15,000,000, was exceeded only by those to the United Kingdom, Canada and France, while the Cuban outward trade exceeded that to all South America combined.

SHIPPING BOARD TO PAY CLAIMS.

United States Mail Steamship Company Will Benefit.

Firm Recently Went Into Hands of Receiver.

Ships to be Operated Under New Name.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Certain of the claims against the United States Mail Steamship Company, which recently went into receivership, will be paid by the Shipping Board, it was announced yesterday by W. M. Ballitt, the board's counsel, after a conference between creditors and the committee, which will operate the ships. First among these claims will be the pay of crews, he said.

According to an announcement, the ships will be operated in future under the name of the United States Line. There are now sixteen vessels at the disposal of the committee, virtually all new Shipping Board vessels or former German liners.

Liners Kronprinzessin Cecilie and Kaiser Wilhelm II, which, during the war, were operated as transports under the name of Mt. Vernon and Agamemnon, will be retained by the Shipping Board and President Harding.

The United States Line will be operated under the direction of an advisory board, appointed by Chairman Lusk of the Shipping Board to serve without pay.

The members include W. Averell Harriman, representing the United American Lines, and Kermit Roosevelt of the Roosevelt Line.

Mr. Schiesinger, general counsel for the Shipping Board, said tonight. Offices and agencies will be maintained, and in general things will be run as before. A Shipping Board representative will be placed in the office of the new company and will finance the operation of the vessels.

Discussing the possibility of sale or charter of ships by the board, Mr. Schiesinger said it would probably be three or four months before they are put on the market.

CALIFORNIA HISTORY

The Story of Moving a River Through a Mountain for the Betterment of Industrial California.

PIONEERING

All last winter behind fifteen miles of impassable road, snow-banked 30 feet deep, a gang of Edison tunnel men were isolated. Only a team of six Alaskan dogs, and the wireless kept them in touch with the outer world.

On August 11th they saw the result of their labor, their hopes, their dreams, in the completion of the great hydro-electric power plant, No. 8, at the junction of the San Joaquin River and Big Creek.

Three and a half miles of tunnel had been bored through solid granite, bringing the waters from Huntington Lake, Shaver Lake and Big Creek to plunge with terrific force on the turbines which drive the generators in No. 8.

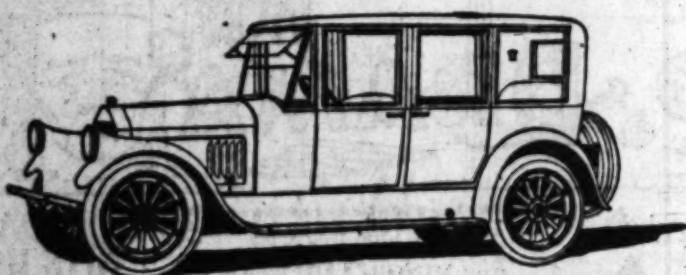

Again had Southern California Edison Company, surmounting all difficulties, achieved the almost impossible, impelled by the desire to provide for the power requirements of its consumers in Los Angeles, and Southern California.

The Verdict of the 6,000

Pierce-Arrow

When the first Pierce-Arrow Dual-Valve Six was announced in 1918, our veteran engineers—who designed the original Pierce-Arrow twenty years ago—asserted that it was more powerful, more flexible, more economical, than anything heretofore produced.

And the owners agreed with the engineers.

Within two years, several thousand owners confirmed the truth of this contention.

Since then the same engineering genius has designed, and the same skilled builders have produced, a Dual-Valve car, fundamentally, the same, but refined and improved.

Quality the watchword not quantity

Pierce-Arrow has never attempted quantity production. For twenty years the question has been not "How many?" but "How good?"

It is significant to record that at the end of three years, more than 6,000 users find prideful satisfaction in Pierce-Arrow Dual-Valve performance.

General Motors Trucks

Former Price $1995
Reduction 500
New Price $1495

At $1495—a cut of $500—GMC Model K-16, One Ton Truck, is undoubtedly the biggest dollar for dollar value in the history of the truck industry.

We not only feel that way, but we can prove it by a comparison part by part with other one ton trucks, and by the records of economical operation and long life.

While this truck is a better truck than it ever was, it has been brought to a popular price. Add to this its low operating cost in city delivery, farm work, bus service and for police and fire patrol and you can get a conception of its remarkable dollar for dollar value.

Here is a one ton truck built from the ground up of real truck parts. There's not a passenger car part in it.

Electric lights, starter, and cord tires are standard equipment. It has removable Cylinder Walls, Removable Valve Lifter Assemblies, Dual Cooling, Superheated Carburetion, Centrifugal Fly-ball Governor and many other distinctly GMC features.

See dealers for further details and for price reductions on all other GMC models.

Net Stars to Struggle for City Tennis Championships Saturday.

STAGE SET FOR FINAL TOURNEY.

Last Tennis Event of Season Starts Saturday.

Many Playing is Expected in City Championships.

And Alexander is Entered in Men's Doubles.

BY CHARLES WEST.
Saturday afternoon the final event of the Southern California tennis season will open when the initial rounds of the Los Angeles city championships are played at the Los Angeles Tennis Club. Tennis is about to be pushed out of the spotlight by football, but the local court artists will have one more wild fling before they relinquish their claim to popularity. Said interest seems to be flagging, for the entry list is almost as large as that of the Southern California championships last month.

The tournament this year will be

CHRISTY TAKES A TRIP TO BARBER.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SARANAC LAKE (N. Y.), Aug. 30.—Christy Mathewson appeared on the streets of the village today for the first time since his arrival here several months ago in quest of health. Mrs. Mathewson drove him in an automobile from their cottage to a barber shop in the village, where the famous pitcher of the Giants submitted to the attention of the proprietor. Christy appeared to be in normal weight. Today's trip was the first step in increase of exercise and a rapid return of strength and health, his friends said.

played in two installments, the first starting Saturday and continuing Sunday and Monday. A rest of one week is next in order, after which the net stars will play the second division of the affair, which will take up the three days of September 9, 10 and 11. The entry list closes tomorrow.

COUNT THEM.
Ten events will make up the program of the tournament, including men's singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles, mixed doubles, junior singles and doubles, girls' singles and boys' singles and doubles. Practically every player who participated in the Southern California championship will be entered in the city title struggle, which presages a set of thrilling matches before the cups are handed around.

Harvey Snodgrass, present holder of the city title in men's singles, will perform in the challenge round. He will have to do some frisky playing in order to retain his title against the determined attack of such net stars as have signed up to do battle. Harold Dickenson, Roy Hornidge, Dave Manocor, Don Shugart, Frank Plumb, Curtis Parker, Bob Allen and Wesley Laskey are a few of the gentlemen who would like to take the city net honors away from Snodgrass, but whether they succeed or not, the spectators will see some acrobatic tennis during the tournament.

Roland Reineke and Snodgrass will attempt to keep their title in men's doubles, but Fred Alexander, former Davis cup player and holder of the national doubles title with H. H. Hackett for a number of years, has teamed up with Bob Allen, and it looks as though the Reineke-Snodgrass duo is in for a tumble.

Strong competition in women's singles is assured, with such players as Miss Marion Williams, Miss Carolyn Bryant, Mrs. Bruce and Mrs. Henry determined to take the hon-

PICK MISS WILLIAMS.

In the girls' singles Miss Marjorie Vail and Miss Marion Gaffney are the two likeliest contenders for the title, and some rapid tennis is expected from them.

Entries in the junior and boys' divisions promise some fancy playing, and from all indications this year's city championships should be the best in several seasons.

HUNDREDS TRY FOR CALIFORNIA TEAM.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

BERKELEY, Aug. 30.—Several hundred would-be footballers have turned out already, hopeful of obtaining places in the line-ups of the University of California football team. Except for three men, last year's successful team was made up of California residents. This year the coaches will have other fine material from many States from which to choose, including several middle-western players of prowess.

THOUSAND WILL BE OUT FOR STANFORD VARSITY.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Aug. 30.—Stanford expects to have at least 1000 men eligible for football competition this season, which is about 700 more than usual. This has been brought about by the abolishment of the scholarship probation rule.

NEVADA ELEVEN WILL BE BUSY.

Hard Schedule Arranged for the Sagebrushers.

List of Opponents Includes California.

Whittier to Journey to Reno for a Skirmish.

(BY A. P. MONT WHEAT.)

RENO (Nev.), Aug. 30.—Football players of the University of Nevada here are facing this year the heaviest schedule ever arranged for a Sagebrush eleven. Ten games are on the list and among the opposing teams are the University of California and the Stanford University, probably the two strongest teams on the Coast.

Coach Courtwright, who turned out the fighting 1920 team, has twelve varsity veterans this year with which he will build up what he says will be the best team ever produced at the university.

Jimmy Bradshaw, Nevada's noted quarterback, who made most of the all-Coast teams of 1920, will be the backfield around which this year's team will be formed. Hobbs, Middleton, Church, Johnson and Foster will be candidates for the other backfield posts. On the line there will be W. Martin, Grant, Fisher, Ross and Colwell, 245-pound tackle, will be in the line.

Nevada's "big game" will be against the University of California at Berkeley, Cal., October 8. Although the Blue and Gold eleven last year overhauled the Sagebrushers, the locals scored just half of the fourteen points made against California during the entire season.

The 1921 Nevada schedule follows:

September 17—University Alumni here.
September 24—Marine Island sailors here.
October 1—Pacific Fleet here.
October 8—University of California at Berkeley.
October 15—St. Mary's College here.
October 22—Utah Aggies at Logan.
October 29—Davis Farm School here.
November 5—University of Utah here.
November 12—Stanford University at Stanford.
November 24—Whittier College here.

WRIGLEY'S MEN CAPTURE FIRST.

with two down in the third, and took some liberties with the arm of Great Gus. Stata walked, and stole second. McAuley singled infield, and stole second. Carroll also singled infield, scoring Stata, and stole second. No one is so proud of that inning that he will save all the press clippings. Still, it is a wise guy who sometimes holds onto a ball. Look at all the great fullbacks who have become famous by holding onto the ball. Griggs fans.

The Angels have adopted the system of wrapping each run in a separate paper, and thus the game is becoming even more sanitary. But they had no wrapping to do in the second game. Sam Ross dealing little except bottled flusies. Ross was right, and when he is in that mood, few are more righteous. Wolfert did save him some embarrassment in the second game, a one-handed running catch of Killifer's by which gave rise to the report that the Portland left fielder had taken some of our run, and snaked it into his mitt.

TOUGH LUCK.

Nick Dumevich was the victim of a lot of bad breaks and some worse errors in the fifth, when the Beavers bracketed four. Grantham singled to right, and King followed with a blow which Griggs could only smother. Ross bunted to Dumvich, who threw wild to McCabe, covering first. Grantham scoring. Griggs followed with a hard tricky rap through Nischoff. King counting and Ross counting when McAuley threw poorly to the plate. A brace of sacrifices, but Griggs scored. The money which Wrighley spent for his ticket East was well invested if it enabled him to escape only this one inning.

RIP RECEIVES.

Rip King had no pegging to do, but if he can leave a baseball like he can peg a football base-stealing will become unpopular. It's the same Rip King who beat Brick Muller's forward passing at Pasadena last winter. Rip is now a receiver, and the question is can he get down in time to receive his own passes. Russ Soria, late of Watsonville, worked the last inning for Los Angeles, and worked the on-two-three system. He left-handed Hale, Portland's best batter on strikes, and gave the laugh to the bug who had yelled, "You'll soon be sorry than you are now." At the end of the inning Soria took back to the bench with him the ball he had used in fanning Hale. That's the Watsonville way. If anybody disputes his statement that he fanned Hale he can say, "Huh, you doubt my word, well, here's the ball I did it with." The score:

Well Meant—But Sometimes Rather Costly

Suggestions about investments from friends who are not authorities on the subject should be appreciatively received—but charily acted upon.

That is because your friend's interest doesn't necessarily mean keen insight, nor his kindness quite supplant expert knowledge of investments.

This reference is not by any means confined to a friend's "tips" on speculative stocks. On the contrary, it has perhaps a wider application to errors respecting securities that are supposedly of the most conservative character.

We, too, have a friendly interest in your success as an investor—but it is tempered by a most thorough, business-like analysis, whenever we offer recommendations as to which securities to buy.

Little BOND ISSUES

That Have Done BIG Things

The history of STREET IMPROVEMENT and COUNTY ROAD BOND issues that have not been issued in million dollar blocks have been absorbed by private investors in comparatively small units running into the millions in total. They have built up sewers, tunnels, sidewalks, lighting systems, county roads, etc.
From the standpoint of the economic benefit and the future of a city, these bond issues should be given a preference with investors.

The Little Red School House

THE little red school house, the road that runs by it, the bridge over the brook—a romantic combination in the eyes of many people—all were probably built from the proceeds of a most unromantic and business-like bond issue. The smooth roads of the country, the paved streets of the city, the public buildings, the courthouse, the city hall, the city waterworks, as well as the schools, owe their existence in most cases to municipal bonds.

These bonds, issued by states, counties, cities, school districts, etc., are payable, both principal and interest, from taxes, which puts them in the class of safe investments. In fact, properly safeguarded municipal bonds, investigated and approved by a responsible banking house, are considered next to government bonds in safety. Billions of dollars of public improvements have been made possible because of the faith of the public in good municipal bonds.

Bonds for Safe Investment—In common with all business institutions, the Harris Trust & Savings Bank is harmed directly or indirectly by unwise speculation and "wildcat" promotions. In a series of advertisements, of which this is the first, we are trying to picture to the public, out of an experience of 39 years, what we have found to be safe investments.

KATHERINE GOLD MINING CO.
KINGMAN, ARIZONA

Operating the Katherine Mine, the great central figure in the Katherine-Union Pass District.

The estimate is very conservative, being based on commercial ore actually blocked out in the mine, with an average value of $14.00 per ton, and does not take into consideration high-grade values of large lodes at the 100, 200, 300 and 400 feet levels, which assay from $100 to $293 per ton. A total of 7839 feet of underground development work has been done to date, including shaft, drifts, crosscuts and air raises.

Plans have been prepared for a large mill with a capacity of 200 tons of ore per day, which will be constructed as soon as possible. Necessary additional machinery and equipment have been ordered for immediate delivery, which will mean that the present working efficiency of the mine. Development work will be continued in ore on all present levels, and a mine shaft within the limits of the 400 to the 700-level as rapidly as money, time and material permit.

For this purpose a total of 100,000 shares of the issued stock of the Katherine Gold Mining Co. will be offered. The first installment of 100,000 shares is now open for subscription at

$1.25 PER SHARE

EEKS SLANDER DAMAGES.
 Matthew P. Sheridan was made detant yesterday in a suit filed in Superior Court asking $5000 damages for slander. The complaint is brought by Mrs. Margaret S. Orr, who alleges that in the presence of another person, the defendant declared
 "she stole things out of my

has long been the custom for owner of a house damaged by fire to be called on to pay the insurance company the amount of the damage. It is the owner that has, through the insurer, got more money from the insurance company than he paid in for, for which he wants a commission on what is recovered by the insurer.

Now comes another person saying the insurance company should repair the damage. No insurance company repairs damage, nor has it done. A fire contractor, who is not an insurance company, pays the owner the owner pays the contractor. It is fair to the owner to let the insurance company pay the contractor, when the owner will not, anyway. It is the owner tied self to a contractor who says he will insure. The insurance company may and may refuse to do what he really should?

It is not better to call a reliable contractor at once and be rid of all juggling?

It does not need to pay an auditor.

It makes estimates for owners of insurance companies free.

CHOOSING PORTIERES.
I am constantly receiving letters from women readers who wish me to help them choose their portieres. The following hints may be of help: I will first deal with the more expensive hangings—which, alas, few of us can have! These are plush, velvet, velour and silk brocade. Since the World War it is hard to obtain double-faced velours, so, in considering velvet portieres, one must figure in the cost of a silk lining for them (to cover the cotton back of the single-faced velour) and this, of course, brings up the total price of the portiere. Only a chosen few of us can afford to put two lengths of single-faced velour back to back—thus doing away with a silk lining.

The next step down in the scale of prices, brings us to silk brocades. These, too, are beyond the reach of most of us, not only because they are in themselves expensive, but also because they must be supported by costly ruffs, furniture and general decoration. Draperies of silk brocade must be "lived up to!" Our next downward step brings us to poplin, mohair, cloth and herringbone. These materials require no lining, and, unlike the velours and brocades, they are not great dust-catchers and may be vigorously beaten when they do need cleaning. They are a "good buy" for the home.

Yet there are still less expensive hangings for the woman who cannot afford plush and velvet. These are: cotton rep, denim, and the heavy "sunfast" materials which are now being manufactured by many good firms. It is from this group of materials that most women feel parties. Capt. Gert Haddock and fifty other young army officers from Ross Field were among the guests.

From Manila.
Mrs. Spencer Lane is here from Manila and is the house guest of her niece, Mrs. Beverly Scott at Hotel Hollywood. Mrs. Alexander H. Barrett is to give a garden luncheon in her honor on Friday.

WHY IS A PERSON'S FAMILY TREE CALLED THEIR "PEDIGREE?"

(Copyright, 1921, by The Western Publishing Co., Inc.)
When we speak of a person's pedigree, or even of the pedigree of a dog or horse, we do not, at least consciously, mean to infer that this has anything in common with the foot of a crane. But this happens to be the literal meaning of the word which, like a number of others, has found its way into English because of the difficulty of applying the proper pronunciation to a French phrase.

A pedigree is, of course, nothing more than a family tree of a line of ancestors and this, when blocked out in the chart form so dear to the hearts of genealogists, takes the form of connecting lines radiating from the common progenitor of the family to his descendants.

French, always fond of painting word-pictures of familiar objects, referred to a chart of this nature as a pied-de-grue, or crane's foot, on account of the resemblance between the term and the translated French term, thus accounting for its presence in the language today.

FINE COOKING IN COAL LAND.

Enjoy Delicious Soup Where Susquehanna Flows.

Chef Makes Acquaintance of Odd Combination Saled.

Describes Best Way to Keep Tomatoes for Winter.

BY A. L. WYMAN, M.C.A. WILKESBARRE (Pa.) Aug. 24.—Up through the Lehigh Valley, and over the mountains into the Wyoming Valley is the prettiest trip that we have made. On our arrival here we were given a room that faces on the park that runs for miles along the banks of the Susquehanna River and of all the places that we have visited this looks more like home than any other. One of the best hotels in the State has a view from its window of flowers, river, mountains and coal mines and from the cleanest of streets and lawns one would not know that they had coal mines if the mountains of mined coal and breaker-houses did not take up so much of the landscape.

From the chef and pastry chef of this hotel I have added to my store recipes that are both practical and tasty.

This chef makes some very delicious summer soups without meat and one of the best is his tomato bisque that is made by melting four tablespoons of butter in a saucepan and cooking in it for five minutes two tablespoons of chopped onion, then add three tablespoons of flour, four cups of milk, three cloves, one and one-half teaspoons of salt, one teaspoon of chopped parsley and a seasoning of paprika and celery salt. Bring to a boil and add one cup of tomatoes or four cups of cooked tomatoes and add to them one-quarter of a teaspoon of salt. Combine the tomatoes with the milk and butter mixture and cook twenty minutes. Strain and serve in consommé cups garnished with a spiral of whipped cream.

Another cream soup is made by covering two cups of grated carrots with four cups of boiling water, to which has been added a pinch of corn, half a teaspoon of salt, one-quarter of a teaspoon of white pepper and a pinch of hot leaf, simmer for one hour and press through a sieve. Place in a saucepan two tablespoons of butter and two and one-half tablespoons of flour, blend and stir in slowly two and one-half cups of hot milk and stir until smooth and thick. Gradually add the carrot liquid and when well-blended, serve with small squares of fried bread.

Stuffed cucumbers served on squares of buttered toast were very good. These were prepared by cutting large cucumbers in three-inch lengths and scooping out the centers so that they formed a hollow. This box is filled with a mixture of equal parts of cooked rice and finely chopped cooked veal, seasoned with pepper, salt, onion juice and curry powder. The stuffed cucumbers are placed in a baking pan that has one-half of an inch of seasoned meat stock, the pan is covered and the cucumbers simmered until tender. After placing on squares of toast, pour over the gravy in the pan.

One of the most delicious omelettes was made with green corn. To make, select four good-sized ears of green corn and with a knife cut down through kernels lengthwise and with the back of the knife scoop out the pulp. Beat the yolks of five eggs until light and foamy and add two tablespoons of cream, salt and pepper. Place in an omelette pan two tablespoons of butter and while the butter is heating stir into the omelette mixture the stiffly beaten whites of the five eggs. Four the mixture into the hot pan, lift the center with a knife and slip the pan so that it will cook evenly. As omelette cooks, turn it over and browned turn out on a hot platter after folding in the pan. Garnish with melted butter and parsley.

An odd combination for a salad was served at a luncheon given here this afternoon. It was a combination of equal parts of sliced apples, bananas, pineapple, seedless raisins, canned cherries and blanched almonds, dressed with cream salad dressing and served in cups of lettuce set on grape leaves.

As we are very fond of pickles and omelettes, we always try to secure the recipe of any that are good. The chef here makes a very fine mustard pickle with one quart of beets and sliced cucumbers, one quart of sliced green tomatoes, one large cauliflower divided into small pieces, one quart of small onions and four chopped green peppers. These vegetables are covered with a brine made of four quarts of water and two cups of salt and allowed to stand for twenty-four hours. Then heat enough to scald and pour into a colander to drain. Mix one cup of flour with six tablespoons of ground mustard, one cup of vinegar and one cup of sugar and enough vinegar to make a smooth paste, add one cup of sugar and enough vinegar to make a smooth paste, add one cup of sugar and enough vinegar to make a smooth paste.

For rhubarb marmalade add to one-inch thick slices of peeled rhubarb and pour over it seven pounds of sugar and let stand overnight. In the morning add two pounds of seeded raisins and one large piece of ginger root and cook until thick.

Tomatoes are very fine and plentiful here, and they have many ways of putting them up for winter use. The best, we think, are the dried to preserves. These are made by adding to five pounds of ripe, firm, peeled tomatoes four pounds of sugar, two lemons sliced very thin and two ounces of very finely sliced candied ginger, and cooking very slowly for three hours. Place in glass jars, cover and store in cool, dark place.

The Daily Fun Hour.

BY HONOR WALSH.

LAND LIZARD.
This lively game originated in South America. One player chosen for leader is called "Land's Head," another is counted out to be "Scorpion." The other players form in line behind the "Head," each with his hands on the shoulders of the player in front. This represents the body of the "Land's Head" and the last player becomes the "Tail." Then the fun begins.

The "Scorpion," standing a little way off, facing the "Land's Head," suddenly dashes forward, and, without touching the others, tries to catch the "Tail." The "Head" does his best to protect the "Tail" by his moving this way and that way, with his long body holding on tightly behind him. The "Head" may move in any direction he pleases, and is allowed to stretch out his arms to ward off the "Scorpion," but is not permitted to touch him away. Should any of the players lose hold and break the line, the "Tail" is considered captured. When caught, either by actual tagging or a break in the "Land's Head" line, the "Tail" joins the "Scorpion." The game goes on until the "Scorpion" has acquired a body as long as the "Land's Head"; the winning side is then determined by a tug-of-war.

Where there are only a few players, the captured "Tail" becomes the "Scorpion" and the former "Scorpion" wins the place of the "Land's Head." In this form of the game the "Scorpion" does not gather any followers.

"To Fool People" as Boulder Project's Urged.

Man's Upheld in Mildly Worded Resolution.

"Boulder money" was the term yesterday by Councilman [Name] in a report read to the City Board of Public Commissioners, announcing the board had offered the appropriation of $150,000 out of the revenue funds of the present year toward the interest and sinking fund charges on outstanding power bonds. The board would turn over to the city $150,000 toward interest charges on the bonds, and the power board would take care of the sinking fund charges. The board also voted to turn over to the city $150,000 toward interest charges on the bonds, and the power board would take care of the sinking fund charges. OPPOSITION'S EFFECT. In the opposition which has been made to the power board's attempt to grab the hydroelectric benefits from the Colorado development which has caused considerable opposition to the people and to throw up a "red herring" at this time by announcing a payment toward the interest on the power bonds, Councilman [Name] continued.

Final preparations for the opening of the "1921, 1922" sale to be launched at the Cindersa Roof, Sixth and Olive streets, tomorrow night were completed yesterday by the officials of the Bureau of Catholic Charities.

MANY IN POSTMASTER RACE.

Judging by the number of applications being made at the office of Secretary Tynan of the Federal Civil Service Commission for the necessary blanks to enable candidates to take part in the examination under the civil service rules for the job of Postmaster at Los Angeles, P. P. O'Brien will have some solid opposition to his ambition to serve the ensuing four years.

Under the rules adopted by the Federal Civil Service Commission, all applications must be filed in Washington by Tuesday, September 5. The list will then be transmitted to the civil service officials in California, and a committee of three, of which one is to be the selection of Postmaster General Hays, will have the task of investigating the personal and business records of the applicants. A list of the three highest is certified for appointment, and the selection must be made from this number. There is no civil service examination as generally understood.

The member of Congress from this district will make the selection. This gives Postmaster O'Brien a distinct advantage as his appointment ad interim was in the first instance backed by Congressman Osborn.

beautiful young women, most of them members of old California families, to provide the $100,000 fund to be raised for the support of the twenty-six institutions in the diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles.

The program, arranged under the direction of Mrs. Dennis P. Kearny, chairman, and Mrs. Julia M. Russo and Mrs. L. P. St. Clair, vice-chairmen of the drive, includes the appearance at the Cindersa Roof of film stars. The sale of the dolls will be conducted by twenty Spanish girls. TEACHERS ARRIVE. Schools at Porterville to Open September 12.

PORTERVILLE, Aug. 30.—Announcement is made that all of the Porterville Union High School faculty members have been secured and many have already arrived in the city preparatory to the opening of the first semester on September 12. The list includes a corps of teachers, who judging from their experience, will prove capable of handling the courses offered. A number of new faces will be seen. Within a few days the entire faculty will be on hand to assume duties.

RAIL RATES ARE TO BE EQUALIZED.

Union Pacific Will Put South, Central and North of State on Same Basis.

Southern California shippers yesterday gained an important point when announcement was made by the Union Pacific system that beginning October 7 class rates between Southern California and Utah common points will be on the same basis as San Francisco and Central California with the same points. The difference which has existed in these rates has formed the basis of charges that Southern California has been discriminated against in favor of San Francisco competitors.

The new rates will make it possible for the jobbers and manufacturers in Los Angeles and vicinity to enter into even competition with the shippers of the San Francisco district. It is declared. In making the announcement of the changes which will be made in the rates of the Salt Lake branch of the Union Pacific, Mr. de Brabant, assistant traffic manager, called attention to the previous announcement along the same line made a month ago.

At that time it was said at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon given in honor of Carl Gray, president of the Union Pacific system, that the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad shortly would establish the prepaid class rates. Another change of rates, interesting especially to the citrus producers, is that effective September 4, when the rate on raw and pulverized manure in carload lots from Laramie, Wyo., and points west thereof to Los Angeles, San Bernardino and Colton, will be $9 a ton when destined to points beyond. This will make a through rate of approximately $19 a ton to the greater part of the citrus belt, Mr. de Brabant says.

OIL TAX SUIT MUST BE HEARD ON MERITS.

ACTION TO RECOVER FROM ORANGE COUNTY UPHOLD BY SUPREME COURT.

Word was received here yesterday that the State Supreme Court has reversed the judgment of the Orange County Superior Court in the action brought by A. Otis Burch and others, operating as the Burch Oil Company, against the county of Orange, to recover taxes paid on certain oil land in Orange county under protest, as illegal and excessive.

The lower court had allowed a nonsuit in behalf of the county when the case of the Burch Oil Company was concluded, but this is reversed, and the case must be heard on its merits. The assessment of taxes was made by the Auditor of Orange county and the Board of Equalization. The holdings of the Burch Oil Company were 23.12 acres, and the value of the land for the purposes of taxation was at first fixed at $645,120, but this amount was later on reduced to $450,000. The taxes that had been paid amounted to $19,142.84.

The Burch tract is surrounded by other oil lands almost identical in character, development, production and value which under the same assessment were valued at a rate from ten to fifteen times less than the figures placed on the plaintiff's lands. The court holds that the excessive valuation is inconsistent with fair play and raises an inference of bad faith.

FEAR LYNCHING AT GATE CITY.

Negro Slayers of Santa Fe Officer Guarded.

Pose Captures Three After Long Desert Chase.

Mobs Are Evaded by Deputies and Prisoners.

[EXCLUSIVE REPORT.] SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 30.—Fifteen hours on the barren desert, east of Barstow, yesterday, proved too much for William H. Woodson, the 21-year-old negro accused of the murder of Santa Fe Special Officer Thomas McMillan at Barstow last night, and his two companions, Lett, aged 30, both colored. With posse totaling 450 men close upon their trail, the three fled from the desert toward the town of Barstow, where they were captured early yesterday afternoon. The capture was effected without bloodshed by Sheriff Daggert, eighteen miles east of Barstow.

OFFICERS FEAR MOB. Five minutes after the capture the negroes were loaded in a high-powered automobile and started upon the 116-mile journey to the County Jail at San Bernardino. The officers in charge of the prisoners were careful not to take them through Barstow, selecting a route which would take them ten miles to the south of the desert city, as at Barstow a mob of more than 100 men had gathered at the depot. A lynching was not only a possibility it was a certainty. The negroes were brought there. Immediately upon his capture, Woodson admitted he had fired the shot which killed the officer's life. His companions protested that they were in no way connected with the shooting.

RECOVERS GUN. When taken, Woodson had no gun in his possession, but when the barrels of a half-dozens rifles were pointed at his head he retrieved his steps through a half-mile of desert sand and pointed to the spot where he had buried the weapon. It was a 32-20 Smith and Wesson. CROWD THREATENING. The negro prisoners were first rushed to Daggett, and they had no sooner arrived than a threatening crowd began to gather. Men in automobiles, men on horseback and men on foot—members of the various posse—came in from the surrounding desert. Many of the horsemen carried ropes upon their saddles. They fingered the ropes suggestively. The prisoners looked on fearfully, their limbs shaking. Sensing immediate danger, deputy sheriffs who had come from San Bernardino the night before, pushed the prisoners into the Sheriff's car and, without looking back, went at high speed down the winding and rugged desert highway to San Bernardino, going by way of Stoddard's Well to avoid the mob that was known to be gathering at Barstow.

It was the end of a fifteen-hour night and day vigil by officers and citizens of every town and watering place from San Bernardino to Needles. It was the close of the most determined manhunt in this section since the days of the noted Outlaw Willie Boy. It was fitting that in the posse that captured the negroes should be Santa Fe Special Officer Fred Smithson of San Bernardino, colleague and intimate friend of the murdered officer. Smithson and Deputy Constable T. O. Carter of Barstow followed the tracks of the fugitives at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and followed them through the deep sand of the desert for thirty miles. Practically surrounded, the negroes threw up their hands at the command of the officers. The negroes had been walking through the open desert since their escape from Barstow, following the shooting, and had covered more than forty miles. Because they had no knowledge of the country they walked in almost a complete circle during the night.

Yesterday, after day light, when the sun began to beat on the sand, they realized their hope was to get near the railroad track. This they were able to do, for they were within sight of the track when taken. INSTANTLY KILLED. Officer McMillan, one of the best known men in the Santa Fe service, was almost instantly killed by a bullet fired from Woodson's gun at 10:15 Monday night. Woodson, Jones and Lett were riding on the engine tender of Santa Fe passenger train No. 31, eastbound. McMillan ordered them off the train, and Jones started to argue with the officer, according to witnesses, and when McMillan ordered the trio out of the yards, Jones cursed him. The officer struck the negro, who cried to Woodson, "shoot him." Woodson fired, the bullet passing through the officer's right breast. The negroes ran east through the railroad yards and were lost in the darkness.

Officers, trainmen and station workers at every point on the Los Angeles and Albuquerque divisions of the Santa Fe were notified, negroes were organized and waited for daylight to take up the trail on the murderers, from San Bernardino. Sheriff Shay sent Deputies Bright, Leffen and Amaral, several Santa Fe special officers, located in San Bernardino at 12:30 a.m. and reached Barstow—ninety-nine miles away, over sandy and treacherous roads—three hours later. Woodson, in admitting he fired the shot which took the officer's life, declared the officer struck him. The three negroes boarded the train at Los Angeles. Woodson declared he has recently been discharged from a hospital at Merced. They were closely guarded in the San Bernardino County Jail last night.

SAYS ALIMONY UNPAID. Wife Declares She Received Only Fifty Dollars in Many Months. Judge McCue yesterday ordered Ross E. Whitley to appear in court for failing to pay alimony of $100 a month. Mrs. Whitley testified that since the order last January she had received only $40 in alimony for her support on the Whitley ranch in the San Fernando Valley. Mr. Whitley's defense was that he had been ordered to pay the money out of partnership assets. The judge took the matter under submission, authorities to be submitted by the attorneys. Mrs. Whitley says she will file a cross-complaint to her husband's divorce action.

LARGER COTTON PROFITS GOAL.

Maximum Returns to Growers Seen in New Project.

California Product Would be Finished in Europe.

East Co-operative Scheme is Offered to Southland.

Preliminary steps in a plan whereby it is expected to revolutionize the cotton industry by having that fabric manufactured and sold through the agency of the growers in such a way as to allow the handlers of the commodity a moderate profit and to insure the maximum profit for the producer were taken at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce.

The plan was presented to a committee of leading bankers, business men and cotton growers by W. D. Nesbitt, president of the Warrant Warehouse Company of Birmingham and Mobile, Ala. It received the endorsement of those present, who expressed their intention of availing themselves of the opportunity as soon as the necessary investigations into the contractual ability and reliability of all of the preferred agencies can be completed.

One of the next steps will be a meeting between Mr. Nesbitt and the local clearinghouse members today. It is expected that other interested persons also will participate in the discussions, which are to offer an opportunity for a careful study of the details of the plan.

Mr. Nesbitt announced that he is in a position to handle 16,000 bales of cotton from this section under the arrangement as outlined, the total number of bales which it is planned to manufacture and market this year under this system being 25,000.

Fundamentally the proposition is one by which the distressed cotton growers are to save themselves by utilizing the machinery and workers and marketing skill of the vast majority of cotton manufacturers and clearinghouses of Central Europe.

Mr. Nesbitt's company has entered into an agreement with one of the world's largest cotton factors and with a powerful cotton manufacturer, the former of London and the latter of Vienna and Prague, whereby a minimum of 250,000 bales of American cotton, furnished by the growers themselves through the machinery set up by the Warrant Warehouse Company, working in conjunction with the International Banking Company, will be made into finished products and sold. For these services the growers are to pay the costs plus 10 per cent.

TO INCREASE PROFITS. It is estimated that by this system the return to the grower in his product will be increased 100 per cent. The motive power for the entire program is in the payment of a few days of the year of the bill, whereby $1,000,000,000 of government money is available, through the War Finance Board and its agency, the Federal International Banking Company, for exporting American goods and re-establishing the American farmer financially. Loans are available from this government agency up to 10 per cent of the market value of the cotton. Cotton agents, heretofore frozen through inability of the farmer to transport his crop or to find enough manufacturers who are in a position to turn the raw into a finished product, will thus be rendered liquid and the growers will be able to meet their obligations to the banks, making it possible for the banks to turn their funds once more into all of the recognized and functionally necessary business channels.

Although no formal contracts were entered into yesterday, it appeared from the expressions of various cotton growers and bankers interested in cotton that, assuming the investigation into the standing of the agency to be satisfactory, a large portion of the cotton of this section will be marketed this year under the cost plus plan and through the organization as set forth by which Mr. Nesbitt came to Los Angeles. Much cotton now in storage and a large amount of the fall crop will, if the indications are borne out, go to Central Europe.

FAVOR PLANS. A number of speakers expressed themselves as favoring the adoption of the plan on the simple ground that California, having the best wash supees in co-operative marketing of farm products such as oranges, lemons, grapes, walnuts and other commodities, has every reason to be hopeful of excellent results from such a program as that outlined. No person present expressed opposition to the plan.

Mr. Nesbitt, who was introduced to the gathering by K. M. Turner, treasurer of the Pacific Cotton Exchange, announced at the close of the meeting that he will remain in the city long enough to allow those interested to go fully into the proposition and then backing it and until such time as formal contracts can be closed for this section's allotment of cotton, assuming the adoption of the plan.

Nine-Year-Old Girl Run Down by Automobile.

Mildred Elbert, 9 years of age, of 326 East Twenty-ninth street, was injured late yesterday when she was run down by an automobile at Thirtieth and Main streets. The child was treated at the Receiving Hospital for a fracture of the left leg and other injuries.

Police who investigated the accident learned that the little girl was standing in the street. The automobile, after the accident, failed to stop, and none of the witnesses secured the license numbers.

CHICAGOAN ORDERED TO PAY UNTIL TRIAL.

Judge Toland made an order yesterday in the separate maintenance suit of Lauretta O. White against Kenneth White, placing alimony at $500 a month, pending the trial of the action. Mr. White, salesman for a Chicago concern, was served with summons while passing through Los Angeles. It was stated that he has filed suit for divorce in St. Paul.

REVEAL HIDING
PLACE OF LOOT.Expect to Recover Most of Park Bandits' Treasure.Say Wounded Man Implicates Self to Get Revenge.Police Think He Has Alibi, but Won't Use It.

The major portion of the $22,000 stolen by bandits from the Huntington Park branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank will be recovered within a short time by officers of the Sheriff's office, according to Chief of Criminal Investigation Manning. He declared yesterday that the hiding place of the money has been revealed.

This and a second confession by Manuel McKnight, who was shot Monday evening while fleeing from officers, were the important developments in the case yesterday. McKnight was interviewed by Dep. Dist. Atty. Eighols and Deputy Sheriff Couts late in the afternoon and he related the statements he made on the operating table at the Receiving Hospital the night before, to the effect that he took part in the robbery and that certain other men were implicated. While he gave out, yesterday, very little new information concerning the identity of the gang of eight who he says held up the bank, his statements were clearer than those made the night before and gave the officers more detailed clues on which to work.

RELEASE CAR DEALER.

"Lucky" Wilkins, a second-hand car dealer who was questioned by Dep. Sheriff Bell concerning the robbery, was released late in the afternoon. It was thought by the officials that he might be able to throw some light on the robbery but at 5 o'clock they said he knew nothing of the movements of the men.

The expected arraignment of the arrested suspects did not take place yesterday morning. It was planned to hold the hearing before Justice Taylor of Whittier, who is sitting for Justice Cusack of Huntington Park, but because of new developments in the case, the hearing will not be held before this afternoon.

Yesterday Claude Lovelace, arrested suspect and one of those named by McKnight, was taken to the bedside of the wounded man for identification. McKnight, who was blinded by the shot, was unable to identify Lovelace and the prisoner stated that he had never seen the injured man before.

RESULT OF FEUD.

An interesting light was thrown upon the confession by a theory advanced by the police that the statement of McKnight, made on what he believes to be his deathbed, is the result of an underworld feud and that, having been "double-crossed" by the bandit gang, although not implicated in the robbery himself, he has "confessed" to participating in the hold-up that he might drag the gang to prison.

This theory is supported by the fact that he has an alibi which he consistently refuses to use, and the fact that he knows names and addresses of the supposed robbers. He was cross-examined on the identity of the men and his story checks in every detail, according to the officers, but they are certain that he was not with the men at Huntington Park.

According to the theory offered by the city police, McKnight at one time worked with the supposed bandit gang. He is supposed to have been dealt with unjustly on some "job," so on his deathbed, as he believes, he is telling his story that he may get revenge. His sweetheart, Mrs. Jeannette Kennedy, has told the officers that the man was with her on the day of the robbery and that she has positive proof that he was not in any way connected with the hold-up.

The exact amount secured by the bandits was placed yesterday by the Sheriff at $22,000. This was divided into $20,000 in cash, $10,000 in traveler's checks and $2,000 in American Express checks.

TRIES BANK LOOT WITH TOY PISTOL?Jail Man With Water Gun for Attempted Robbery at San Gabriel Institution.

Armed with what appeared to be a vicious-looking automatic pistol, but was really a toy water gun, a lone man attempted yesterday morning to hold up officials of the Bank of San Gabriel at San Gabriel. Frustrated, the would-be bandit jumped through a window and fled, pursued by a number of citizens. A man giving the name of Henry Boyde was later captured in an alleyway near San Gabriel, by Deputy Sheriff F. T. Williams, and lodged in the County Jail on a charge of attempted robbery.

When W. R. Fee, president, and F. R. Fergye, cashier of the bank, began to take up their duties in the morning, they were confronted by tall individual, whose face was covered with a large blue handkerchief, with holes cut for the eyes, and who held in one hand what looked like a large automatic revolver. When a demand was made upon the officials to hold up their hands, Mr. Fee turned and ran out the door, and the would-be bandit, followed, going by way of a window.

Shortly afterward Boyde was taken into custody, and Deputy Williams says a toy water pistol and the blue handkerchief were found in his possession. Deputy Sheriff Strong and Dwyer, who investigated, reported that the supposed bandit was a rank amateur and it was not believed that he was in any way connected with the gang that last week looted the Huntington Park branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank of more than $22,000.

After Boyde was lodged in jail, a small car, reported as stolen, was found near the bank.

A complaint charging Boyde with attempted robbery was issued late yesterday at Alhambra.

TRIO ESCAPES DEATH IN SEA

Local Dentist and Companions Adrift Thirty Hours.

Disabled Motor Boat Finally Lands at Balboa.

Party Without Food Through Entire Adventure.

After battling the open sea in a disabled motor boat for more than thirty hours during which time many hydroplanes and torpedo-boat destroyers from San Diego and a commercial plane from Los Angeles Harbor searched for and lost Dr. Vernon J. Gay, a dentist with office in the Mutual-DeWitt Building, and his companions, Dr. Samuel and Alfred Dunn, drifted onto the beach at Balboa late yesterday afternoon, alive, but hungry and exhausted.

Dr. Gay and his companions left Santa Catalina Island in the disabled motor boat Monday morning at 7 o'clock, and headed for the mainland, after a week-end tour of the island. They had gone but a few miles when their motor broke down and the frail craft began to drift with the sea and tide.

Shortly thereafter the boat encountered bad weather and the lean trio was carried far out to sea, the boat being buffeted about by high waves.

SEARCH BEGUN.
The failure of Dr. Gay to arrive at his home, 1325 South Gramercy Place, Monday afternoon, led his father, F. P. Gay, to fear his son and companions had been drowned. Mr. Gay, appointed to naval authorities at Los Angeles Harbor for aid, and then himself chartered an airplane to go in search of the missing motor boat.

Telegrams of the naval base at San Diego brought two hydroplanes and a destroyer, the search for the motor boat and its occupants had last been seen about 1:30 o'clock Monday morning by Lt. Turner of Los Angeles, a passenger on a Catalina steamer, Mr. Turner, a friend of Dr. Gay, had warned Lt. Turner of the danger of the small boat.

The chartered plane, piloted by A. Anderson of Los Angeles, had searched the sea Monday afternoon and all yesterday morning, but returned twice yesterday to report failure.

Upon his arrival at Balboa yesterday afternoon, Dr. Gay reported he had seen an airplane over the sea and had attempted to attract the attention of the pilot by setting fire to bits of clothing of himself and companions, but that the pilot failed to notice the signal.

After drifting aimlessly about, the motor boat first going in one direction and then another, the ship wrecked trio realized shortly before noon that their craft was drifting toward a shore. They did not know whether the shore there was an island or the mainland, Dr. Gay said, but by early afternoon they had come close enough to the shore to see the beach and to land.

An hour or two later their frail craft beached itself on the sand at Balboa, where fathers and sons ran to their aid and helped them ashore.

None of them had packages of food since their departure from Santa Catalina Island the morning before.

Dr. Gay's father, Dr. Samuel Gay, Harbor, was notified, and he telephoned to the day residence in Los Angeles to dispatch a car to meet them with fresh clothing to Balboa for the shipwrecked adventurers. The three arrived in Los Angeles late last night, little the worse for their experience.

PASADENA AIDS CAUSE OF MELODY.

Fellowship for Composers is Provided by Music and Art Association.

Recognizing a parallel in the progress of science resultant from government of research, the Pasadena Music and Art Association have established a composer's fellowship, carrying an honorarium of $200 per year, to be given American musicians for the encouragement of composition.

Arthur Farwell has been awarded the fellowship for the year beginning September 1, and will take up his residence in Pasadena shortly to enter upon his work.

Farwell is best known for his Indian compositions, and locally for his extensive work in conjunction with Charles F. Lummis, the American Institute of Archaeology in collecting, transcribing and harmonizing the songs of the Indians of the Southwest. His organization of the "Va-Wan-Tee" chorale, in 1918, and the community musical drama, "The Evergreen Tree," are all accredited to Farwell. The music for the "Piedmont Blues" in Berkeley for the season just closing, is also his work.

DISCOVERY AT CYRENE.
A discovery which it is asserted will form one of the fundamental sources for a history of the Roman Empire under Augustus has been made recently by Dr. Oliverio, an Italian expert, in Cyrene, the ancient Greek colony of Archimedes, founded in the seventh century. A London Morning Post correspondent, writing from Cyrene, says that excavations at Ras el-Hadid, the Berberia, which stood in the midst of the gardens of the Hesperides, have unearthed a block of black granite eight feet long, one face of which bears a flawless Greek inscription of more than 100 lines. It is the translation of a letter from Augustus on the government and administration of justice in Cyrene, giving a wonderful insight into the financial and judicial conditions of the country at that time.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

TWO AGED MEN AND OWN LIVES.

Slashes Throat and Shoots Himself.

Takes Poison, Then
Flee Hospital.

Because of ill health and other troubles, two aged men yesterday ended their lives in spectacular manner. Both were dead when police arrived on the scene.

The first man to commit suicide leaped from the top of the California building down an air shaft. The second man first slashed his throat with a razor and then took poison.
A short time after the two men committed suicide a third man swallowed poison in an effort to take his own life. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital and was treated and then taken to the County Hospital. Later he had poison removed from his system and was released from the institution.

LEAPS TO DEATH.

John Hamilton Hood, 79 years of age, former general secretary of the Y.M.C.A. and a Presbyterian evangelist, was the man who hurled himself from the top of the California building. He fell nine stories and was instantly killed. The body was removed to the undertaker's establishment of George R. Fitch.

Police who investigated the suicide case learned that Mr. Hood lived at 311 West Eighteenth street.
His pocket was found a letter which read:

"My name is John Hamilton Hood. I am an old Y.M.C.A. general secretary and a Presbyterian evangelist. In case of accident I want you to attend me. Bury me in Los Angeles. My effects go to my wife, Mrs. A. Whitesides, 715 West Five street, Florence, S. C., or if she be dead, to my son, Clifford, 1100 North Main street, Euclid, Ohio. Please inform them."

FOUND BY CHILDREN.

The second man to commit suicide was identified by the police as John Cosgrove, 71 years of age, living in a hotel near Seventh and Main streets. Mr. Cosgrove ended his life in a hotel room at Western and Santa Barbara avenues. The body was found after removing all marks of identity from his clothing. First he slashed his throat with a razor and then shot himself. The body was removed by children and the police were notified. The body was identified by friends after the removal had been removed to the under-taking establishment of J. D.
Fitch.

Frank Miller, 84 years of age, of 11 East Seventh street, who attempted suicide, swallowed poison in his room in a hotel. He was found by other lodgers at the hotel and was taken to the Receiving Hospital. He was removed to the County Hospital and placed in a ward. A short time after the police were notified that he had been removed. It is believed that he had been removed to the nurses were out of the ward.

AUTO TURNS TURTLE.

Augustus Hadley Injured When Thrown from Machine.

[RECEIVED DISPATCH.]
POMONA, Aug. 30.—H. W. Santa and his daughter, who live at 472 the Eighth street, were seriously injured when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a motor-driven flat car used by the local city gang on the Salt Lake right-way at the Palomares-street crossing this morning.

Santa was going north on Palomares street and had started over his tracks after making sure to be approaching, when he suddenly saw the small flat car bearing down upon him.

The force of the impact overthrew the automobile, burying Santa and his daughter beneath it.
Workers in a nearby laundry came to the scene and released the prisoners from beneath the machine and placed them in the Pomona Valley hospital, where it was found that Santa was suffering a fractured leg and severe bruises and cuts, while his daughter obtained a fractured elbow and was otherwise cut and bruised. The section workers at the flat car jumped to safety.
The automobile was badly wrecked.

CLOCK WEE BIT OF OLD SCOTCH.

New Scheme to Beat Dry Law is Puffed by Collector.

A mysterious package received yesterday by Customs Collector Elliott revealed another scheme to beat the national prohibition law. It was consigned to a citizen of Los Angeles, whose name is withheld, and bore this line, "A Clock—Do Not Sell." It bore the marks of a Scottish port.

There was something about the package that excited suspicion and it was opened. Instead of the works of a clock there was found snugly buried a quart bottle of very excellent Scotch whisky.

On account of the high standard of the stuff, "Exhibit A" is likely to evaporate before it figures in court proceedings.

Experts who made a survey of the ambrosia say it had all the tang of the Scottish highlands, except that Bobbie Burns imbued when he made wassail with the cut-ups in Dumfries. Of course, the knowledge of the said experts was limited to a sniff of the aroma that lingered about the cork of the bottle.

Makes It "Love All" in Marriage Game

In several national tournaments, she is an intimate friend of the former Miss Timken and has made her home with the latter. Last year Mrs. Potter was officially rated as third best player among the women.
Mr. Timken, father of Mrs. Sturgis, was divorced by the bride's mother, now Mrs. C. E. Burt, several years ago. He has since married, his wife formerly being Mrs. Freeman Ford of Pasadena. Mr. Timken formerly lived at San Diego and in company with his daughter, passed many winters in Pasadena, where they occupied prominent places in the social life of that city.

Mrs. Sturgis is 23 years of age and Mrs. Potter is 26.

Mrs. Eleanor Tennant Potter, Internationally Known Tennis Star,

Whose marriage with that of Valeria Irving Timken, daughter of the bearing manufacturer, yesterday in Hollywood surprised their many friends in Southern California. Miss Tennant, who has been tennis instructor at the Beverly Hills Hotel, married Lyman J. Potter, a broker of San Francisco, while Miss Timken became the bride of George A. Sturgis, also a broker, of Shreveport, La.

"SEVENED OUT" SAND SENTENCED.

Dice About All Embroiled
Suspect Had Left,
Police Say.

Seven sets of dice and 7 cents in cash were all that C. M. Garrison, 34 years of age, a Los Angeles Railway conductor, had to show for $108.50, said to have been embezzled by him from the street car company when he was arrested yesterday, the police say. Garrison was sentenced to 180 days in the City Jail by Police Judge Richardson.

Garrison, according to E. L.
Olney, chief special agent for the street car company, was arrested after he had failed to turn in the receipts of his run for four days. When arrested he stated that he had gambled away all the money.

Forgery Charge Placed Against
"Ad" Solicitor.

Accused of obtaining various sums from the Los Angeles Chronicle, a local publication devoted to the interests of city employees not under civil service, Bertrand E. MacDunn, an advertising solicitor, was held to answer yesterday by Justice Hinchey on four counts of forgery. The specific charge is that MacDunn forged the names of several local businessmen to advertising contracts, and collected his commission from Robert T.
Hale and John Topham, owners of the paper. It is charged he obtained $60 for a purported contract with the Arvest-Warmouth Company.

According to Dep. Dist. Atty.
Costello, the defendant obtained about $180 through asserted forged advertising contracts. It is charged he informed the prospective advertisers that he would run their advertisement free of charge for a time, and then forged their names to the purported contracts. A special commitment, containing four counts, was ordered, and bail was fixed at $100, in default of which defendant was lodged in the County Jail.

IN MEMORY OF CLERK.

Justice Brown yesterday adjourned court as a mark of respect to the late Waldo W. Falloon, who died Saturday. Funeral services were conducted yesterday. Mr. Falloon was official reporter in Justice
Brown's court for twelve years.

HOODOO NUMBER.

Crops Out Four Times in the Lives of Couple in Divorce Tangle.

After having been married eleven years, eleven months and eleven days, Mr. and Mrs.
Harold L. Childs are to battle for the disposition of $111,000 for the divorce court, as a result of a complaint filed yesterday by the wife, Gertrude W. Childs.

The plaintiff's complaint mentions Ethel Ladd as the co-respondent and recites that the purported infidelity of the defendant occurred at Drummond, Mont., during five days, beginning August 23, last. She stipulates that the property is community property, although it is recorded in the name of Stimpson and Childs. Charles Brook, Pauline Gamble, Har-bert Ingraham and Ethel Ladd, Mrs. Childs asks in addition to a property division, that she be allowed $350 per month alimony and $1000 attorney's fee.

2000 New Gage Hats

An extraordinary purchase!

A Typical Jacoby Sale!

This Sale for Tomorrow (Thursday) Not Today!

—The simple announcement of a sale of Gage Hats at $6.98 ought to arouse the interest of every woman in all Los Angeles.

—And these Gage Hats—Oh! if we could only send them to you and let them tell you how wonderful they really are.

—200 of them—all brand new—hats that Gage made to sell in a wholesale way for more than $6.98—and here they are at that price on the first day of September.

—Of course, it isn't just a happenstance that these hats came to us at such a sensational price! There was all sort of work and planning back of the purchase—but our new Millinery Chief was formerly with the house of Gage and because they had confidence in him and his ability to build one of the biggest Millinery businesses in the West here at Jacoby's, they were eager to co-operate with him in every way they could.

—And that's how it comes that these stunning Gage Hats of rich panne velvet are here to sell for $6.98.

—Most of them are in black, though there are plenty of browns, blues and other shades for those who like colors best.

—Styles!—Glance at the pictures below — and then remember that in all the 200 hats there are very few duplicates.

—Trimmings!—One may have about what one fancies most—chenille, yarn embroidery, feathers, or novelties.

—And Linings!—They aren't so important, but after all, isn't it a joy to have the inside of the hat on a par with the outside and these hats are silk lined as you would expect Gage Hats to be.

—Remember that this sale is for Thursday, (not today)—but there's a big window filled with them now which it will pay you well to see.

—None of these hats sent C.O.D. and there can be no exchanges or refunds—

CALIFORNIA OIL STRIKE IS OFF.

Union Men to Remain on Jobs in State Fields.

Workers Change Minds After Government Acts.

Dispute Left in Hands of Federal Board.

(REUTERS DISPATCH) BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 30.—Union oil workers of California will remain at work on and after Thursday, as the result of a letter received by the conference committee, District No. 1, Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America, from the Federal Mediation Board late last night, asking that the strike vote taken by the different locals two weeks ago be rescinded. Kern River Local No. 13 took the initiative and by unanimous vote rescinded the action previously taken for a strike. It was to be effective at midnight tomorrow on the properties of all companies that had not signed their intention of meeting the Federal board and representatives of the workers in conference here September 1.

The letter in full was received today by telegram from W. J. Tarrow, similar copies were sent to other locals of the state. After quoting Mr. Tarrow, as head of the conference committee added in today's message: "The conference committee strongly recommends that the recommendations of the government be fully complied with, and that you cease all strike talk and positively all strike activities; that you leave matter in hands of the government with the fullest confidence for an early and satisfactory settlement, and that you promptly hold special meetings and fully ratify this, wiring your decision."

Locals all over California will take similar action immediately, declared Harry Baker, chairman of the district council strike committee and first international vice-president of the union.

The district strike committee met this morning at the Labor Temple with Mr. Baker in the chair. The government letter was read and explained, and the action of the conference committee informed.

All strike-committee members will go back to their local and will ask that they follow the Kern River local's and the committee's action in rescinding the vote. Present at the meeting were Harry Baker, chairman; John A. Burns, Taft; Val Walters, Taft; E. C. Leach, Fillmore; N. E. Kirkpatrick, Marysville; C. C. Graham, Coalinga; Ed Day, McKittrick; Robert H. Fraser, Kern River; J. W. Walker, Orcutt; and C. A. Lindquist, Fillmore.

The Worst Sufferer.

"Don't tell me she has lost her voice."

MYSTERIES OF PAST RECALLED.

Sunday "Times" to Tell of Cases Which Baffled the Local Police.

For five days he had been missing. Not a trace of his whereabouts could be found. His bride of three months was prostrated with fear. Officials of his company hurriedly checked his books, but not a cent was unaccounted for. The wealthy broker had vanished.

In another part of the city a real estate agent was showing a woman client through a furnished, unoccupied house. They came to the upstairs back bedroom. The door was locked, and the man peered through the keyhole. Inside was the body of a man, face downward. The real estate man had solved the mystery of the disappearance only to plunge the city into a vastly more absorbing mystery that for many years has puzzled all investigators.

This is only one of the several baffling crimes of yesterday in Los Angeles that today remain upon the records as "unsolved." What of the murders that have slipped into the port of the unsolved? What were the motives, the clues, the stranger-than-fiction facts? Read about them in The Times next Sunday.

HUSBAND IS FICKLE. SAYS DECREE SEEKER.

WANTS NEW WOMAN EVERY TWO MONTHS, WIFE'S DECLARATION.

Charging that her husband thinks he "ought to have a different woman every two months," Ethel Beatrice May yesterday filed suit for divorce from Daniel Morgan May. The couple were married ten months ago. Among the statements purported to have been made by Mr. May to his wife, the complaint sets forth the following: "You aren't any good any more. I was a fool to get married. I ought to have a different woman every two months. I am in love with a married woman now. We might as well quit. We are just living in hell."

As a result of this purported drizzle, it is cited that Mrs. May fainted and that her husband sent Jewel May, the plaintiff's step-son, for a physician. Another time she fainted when she says her husband said: "I am in love with a married woman and I hope to get her."

Her complaint was filed by Attorneys Wetherhorn, Hoyt & Jones. Alimony of $100 per month is asked and a division of community property, represented in an ice business, of which defendant is said to be the owner.

PIER PURSUED BY EVIL FATE.

Bagdad Cafe Fire is Link in Chain of Misfortunes.

Life of Night Watchman at Venice Is Imperiled

Loss by Flames Estimated at Fifteen Thousand.

The fire of unascertained origin, which practically destroyed the gorgeous Bagdad Cafe on Sunset Pier at Venice early yesterday, came as the culmination of setbacks which have pursued the cafe and pier since their opening.

The fire, which was discovered by deep-sea divers working at the end of the pier at 4:30 a.m., nearly took the life of John D. Condon, a watchman from the Sheriff's office, who was sleeping in the building, and for a time threatened to destroy the entire pier.

The pier was built from an abandoned structure which was leased to the Sunset Pier Company by the city of Venice. Among other charges now pending against three Venice City Trustees is that of having leased the site at too low a figure.

Edward C. Dunivant, owner, petitioned the Venice City Trustees August 23 to allow him sixty days extended time in which to pay the city license tax on the Bagdad Cafe and Sunset Pier ballroom. The petition for extension of time was denied, and City Treasurer Pasquod and City Attorney Lyon were instructed to proceed to collect the license or close the places of business.

A recent break in the Venice outfall sewer, which extends from the end of Center street directly under Sunset Pier and 100 feet into the ocean, caused Dr. E. L. Magee, Venice health officer, to prohibit bathing in the surf between Windward avenue and Center street.

Walter Crawford, Venice City engineer, reported to the trustees that divers employed by the beach city found that the break was caused by a pile driven when Sunset Pier was constructed. The pier company was ordered to have the sewer repaired at once.

The Bagdad Cafe did not carry insurance. The loss was estimated at $15,000.

FRUIT MAN IS DEAD.

Vice-President of Fay Companies Was Prominent in Southland.

Frederick J. Harrigan, vice-president of the Fay Fruit Company and of the Fay Securities Company, died yesterday at his home, 1151 Linwood avenue, after an illness of about five months. Mr. Harrigan had lived thirty years in Los Angeles, and formerly was connected with the California Citrus Union. He later was associated with F. P. Fay in organization of the fruit-shipping concern. He was actively engaged in this business up to the time of his illness.

Mr. Harrigan was born fifty-nine years ago in Michigan. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Mary H. Harrigan; a daughter, Miss Laura H. Harrigan; and two sons, John H. and Robert C. Harrigan. Philip F. Harrigan who died several years ago, was a son.

The funeral services will be private. Interment will be in Inglewood cemetery.
